WARWICK CASTLE
OUTDOOR CINEMA IN A MAGICAL SETTING

DIRTY DANCING & BACK TO THE FUTURE*
FRIDAY 28 & SATURDAY 29 SEPTEMBER 2012

Warwick Castle is without doubt one of the Ultimate Castles in Britain. A medieaval Castle built by William the Conqueror, and historically belonging to the Earl of Warwick, the Castle also boasts some great film links having been visited by Hollywood stars such as Grace Kelly, Clark Gable, David Niven and Lawrence Olivier. Today it is one of the country's top visitor attractions and this summer launches its first open air cinema event.

So why not bring friends, family and a picnic and enjoy the classic movies Dirty Dancing on Friday 28 September and Back to the Future on Saturday 29 September.

Dirty Dancing:

Get ready for the time of your life as we bring Dirty Dancing back to the big screen! Starring Patrick Swayze and boasting hit songs and brilliant dance moves, Dirty Dancing is the perfect film for a night of cinema under the stars!

Friday 28th September 2012

Doors open 6pm and film starts at 7:30pm

Tickets: £12.50 / £8.50 for children under 15

Back to the Future:

Flux Capacitors at the ready! We are delighted to be bringing Back To The Future into the 21st century with a screening of everyone's favourite 80s adventure. Starring Michael J Fox and the unforgettable Christopher Lloyd as The Doc, the film is an uplifting story, that shaped a decade of cinema.

Saturday 29th September 2012
