

WARWICK CASTLE TO GIVE AWAY BOOKS THIS WORLD BOOK DAY

- Local children can pick up free books from the Castle's World Book Day Cart on March 4th

XX February 2021: To celebrate World Book Day, Warwick Castle will be giving away more than 200 fantastic books to local children - and with lots of exciting tales to choose from, kids are sure to find a story they love.

Between 10am and 4pm on March 4th, locals to the Castle passing by on their daily walk will be able to pick up free children's books* from its very own World Book Day Cart. Located outside the entrance on Castle Lane, the Cart will give local children access to wonderful stories and fun, educational reads.

Staying true to the Castle's heritage and allure, the Cart will offer some fantastic books following a knight-worthy theme, including the wonderful and popular children's story, Zog – written by Julia Donaldson and illustrated by Axel Scheffler. And, with Zog being the star of a new 3D interactive trail launching at the Castle this April, it is the perfect time to discover this popular tale!

Zog is the keenest dragon in school. He's also the most accident-prone. Luckily, a mysterious little girl always comes by and patches up his bumps and bruises. But will she be able to help him with his toughest test: capturing a princess? A wonderfully funny story from the well-known creators of The Gruffalo and Stick Man.

On the initiative, Liam Bartlett, Operations Director at Warwick Castle said, "We are thrilled to be making this community Book Day Cart available – and to be able to provide so many books to local children, especially after such a difficult year for all. We have always been passionate about making education fun and accessible and giving away these wonderful stories is our way of supporting local children this World Book Day."

To protect the health and safety of those visiting the cart, all the brand new books will be sorted by title into baskets to minimise contact. Visitors are asked to abide by social distancing at all times.
